1. [REDACTED] according to a ruling of the SMA, the management of every firm in Saxony-Anhalt which retains any degree of private ownership must negotiate with the work's council of the firm an agreement "similar" to the one presented below.

Labor-Management Agreement

2. "The following agreement is concluded between the Management of Firm . . . and the Work's Council:

- The Work's Council is guaranteed full power of decision (Mitbestimmungsrecht) in all managerial and economic questions.
- In dealings with customers concerning important decisions about production a member of the Work's Council will be consulted.
- The Work's Council is authorized to inspect the incoming and outgoing mail in order to be informed constantly about business activities.
- The Work's Council will participate in any decisions concerning processes of production from the raw material to the finished product.
- The Management declares itself ready to give information about all business activities, when necessary, with the requisite documentation.
- The Work's Council is authorized to inspect the books at any time. A financial account will, upon request, be presented and explained to the Work's Council, at the latest, three months after the end of the fiscal year.
